From the desk of Fr. George...

Greetings Parishioners and friends of St. Julie's,

As we celebrate the Easter Season, the Resurrection of Jesus continues to strengthen the grace of our Baptism. From those sacred waters we are called to live in the flowing stream of His love. Every sacrament strengthens us and encourages us to live as sons and daughters of a loving God. Saturday - May 7th is First Communion Day and Friday - May 20th is Confirmation Day. Please join me in prayer as our younger children receive the second Sacrament of Initiation and our older youth complete their initiation into our Catholic Faith.

On this Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday), grace flows into the lives of the disciples and the early church. Thomas' disbelief turns into belief upon the sight of the resurrected Lord. While we experience Jesus is through Sacrament, Scripture and Church, our personal relationship with Him is no less powerful. "Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God, and everyone who loves the Father loves also the one begotten by him. In this way we know that we love the children of God when we love God and obey his commandments." (1 John 5:1-2)

Take time this week to experience God's grace and mercy. The Easter Season lasts until Pentecost for a reason: We need to celebrate and be refreshed... our sins have been forgiven and Christ has conquered death, giving us eternal life and the promise of our own bodily resurrection on the last day. Alleluia!

Fr. George

Did You Know?

Divine Mercy Sunday: It was in 2001 that the Holy Father celebrated the first universal Divine Mercy Sunday. This devotion was popularized by the diaries of a young Polish nun, Sister Faustina. Her diaries contain private revelations given to her by Jesus to spread the message of His divine mercy. Sister Faustina was beatified by Pope John Paul II prior to his death. April 2nd was the 17th anniversary of the death of Servant of God, Saint John Paul II, Pope.

Please take some time to read today's bulletin insert regarding The Synod process. Thank You.

Heavenly Father, thank You for Your goodness and faithfulness in my life.

*Thank You for refreshing and renewing my heart.
Fill me with Your peace; fill me with Your strength.
Help me to do good and stand firm until I see my harvest of blessings.
In Jesus's name...Amen!*

Dear Fr. George and Parishioners of St. Julie's

I want to acknowledge and thank you for the El Salvador-Latin American Collection. It is one of the most important appeals of the year because it directly supports our priests and religious missionaries who work in El Salvador.

Between the parish collection and the clergy contributions to this appeal, we have been able to maintain our long history of service to our Diocesan Mission. Your parish collection contributes to the salary and health benefits of our missionaries as well as the gas for their vehicles and food for their tables. When these most basic needs of our missionaries are covered, they are freely able to serve the people in the poor country.

Thank you again and may God bless you for your goodness in supporting our Diocesan Mission in El Salvador.

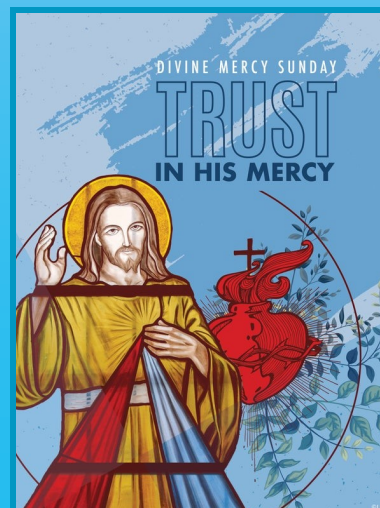

*Sincerely in Christ,
Rev. R. Stephen Vellenga
Diocesan Mission Director*

News on the Synod for Synodality

It's hard to believe that it has already been six weeks since we held listening sessions here at St. Julie Billiart Church to 'hear the voices' of those who comprise the church. Thirty-six individuals attended the three sessions and generated pages of data in response to this inquiry among the People of God who are part of the Universal Church.

As the Universal Church seeks a path forward 60 years after Vatican Council II, I want to share with the parish a summary of the report to the Diocese containing the dialogue that was guided by the Holy Spirit during our Listening Sessions. This information will eventually be compiled from churches and dioceses throughout the world and be delivered to Rome for even further review and consideration by the Universal Church. It means a great deal not only to me but also for St. Julie's future planning as we adapt to the needs of our community in a post-pandemic world. Keeping pace with the evolving Universal Church is an obligation we need to take at its highest level.

Our report has been submitted to the Diocese and we have received confirmation of its reception. They are now in the process of collating information from all the parishes of our diocese. Their work will ultimately generate a report to be delivered to Rome as well as defining 'work' that can be accomplished within the Diocese of Cleveland. I can only begin to imagine their task, but from what I have read they are using a computer analysis of all the data that is being divided into categories. Even so, it is a daunting task.

On the local level – here at St. Julie's – we are reviewing your feedback from the sessions and will be studying the data to see how it will best benefit us. This is a planning process which will take time, effort, and even more discussion. In a recent letter sent to all the priests about the synodal journey from Archbishop Lazzaro You Heung Sik (Prefect of the Congregation for the Clergy) and Mario Cardinal Grech (Secretary General of the Synod of Bishops), the importance of this undertaking was strongly re-iterated.

"So that we do not fall into the risks highlighted by Pope Francis – that is, formalism, which reduces the Synod to an empty slogan; intellectualism, which makes the Synod a theoretical reflection on problems; and immobilism, nailing us to the security of our habits so that nothing changes – it is important to open our hearts and listen to what the Spirit suggests to the Churches."

"Without a doubt, it is a matter of progressively discovering the fundamental equality of all the baptized and of stimulating all the faithful to participate actively in the journey and mission of the Church. In this way we will have the joy of finding brothers and sisters who share with us the responsibility for evangelization. But in this experience of the People of God, the special charism of ordained ministers to serve, sanctify and animate the People of God can and should also come to the fore in a new way."

Therefore, as your pastor, I will embrace this responsibility to lead us along the next step of our journey and keep you informed as it unfolds. Join me in prayer that the Holy Spirit will be our guide along the way, and our dialogue will bear fruit that will last.

Sincerely,

Fr. George Vrabel

Synthesis Report to the Diocese – St. Julie Billiart Parish, North Ridgeville, OH

Summary of Listening Sessions

Parish involvement of participants- Parish council, Finance council, Ministry coordinator. Ministries represented were: Music, Eucharistic ministers, Sacristan, Lectors, Environment, prison, outreach (community meals), Chaplain, Hospitality/usher, vacation bible school, PSR, Rosary, IT, recording secretary for Parish Council

1. What are the most common themes that emerged from the listening sessions?

- Greater role and recognition for both women and men in the church. We must find ways to increase vocations. Some of these present practical logistical challenges (i.e. housing etc.), but nothing that is insurmountable. For example, women deacons, elevation of nuns to greater roles and recognition, married clergy, Ordain deacons as priests
- Involvement of youth in the Church
 - Personal interaction by both adults and other youth is paramount. The example of Yamileydis in the Catholic Charities “Be the Light” video is a good example.
 - Recognize the gifts of adults and youth and encourage them to use them
 - Meet youth where they are. Don’t make the venue the focus.
 - Engage with other parishes and organizations to learn best practices. We don’t have to reinvent the wheel.
 - Share programs among parishes
- Catholic Education – in schools and for laity
 - Catholic school status
 - Cost is prohibitive for some. Make it more affordable
 - We need more continuity throughout education from elementary through college
 - How can we use the “rules” too our advantage to engage youth?
 - Teach why Catholics do what they do. We are not dumb.
 - Improve messaging
 - Take a position that Christianity is of value not judgmental and is the most important thing in life
 - Call a sin a sin
 - We are not only a church of rules but also guardrails. Teach the difference. When is it a rule and when is it a guide.
 - Faith is a verb
 - Be more inclusive
 - Encourage and exemplify positivity
- Increased outreach and evangelization
 - The laity must be energized
 - The effect of the pandemic has caused us to find new ways to do things. Expand those don’t withdraw to where we were.
 - We need to find out what is keeping people away from church – mailings, surveys?
 - How do we share these data?
- Get out of our comfort zone.
 - Our catechesis prepares us to evangelize but we fall short. How can we better prepare ourselves?
 - We need to get back those who left in the pandemic as well as those who left the faith.

- The poor and disenfranchised population has been growing. We need to better identify these marginalized people and serve them better.
- Share ministries among parishes. Work together to increase resources and improve results.

Which points of view were mentioned less but are interesting and noteworthy?

The Synod is to prepare the Universal Church to move forward together in our challenging world. But, we can't do that if there are barriers for laity and parishes to move forward as well. This means more help from the diocese is necessary to effect the changes that will move us forward and not revert to the status quo because we lack resources. Those resources could be monetary or they could be in provision of services to parishes. The level of support could be based on the size of a parish and its ability to finance themselves.

Locally

- The diocese needs to provide help - e.g. provide $$ or management services to support a role such as a parish office manager in each parish so that the Pastor and clergy can focus on our spiritual beings. Few priests have administrative skills to manage all of the schools, grounds etc. The diocese could provide the resource(s) (apps, IT support, etc.) to help alleviate this issue.
- Diocese find a way to assist the parishes (especially small parishes) to implement suggested changes that have come from these sessions to move us into the future. Without that, parishes will just fall back on the familiar.
- Review goals for parishes to decrease competition and increase working together. Don't expect this to happen organically.

Universal Church

- Wealth Distribution – The Church has vast wealth around the world that could be put to use to reach the marginalized and effect very real changes for the world population.

What did participants have to say about areas where the Church is in need of healing and conversion?

Mistreatment and exploitation slowly seep into every layer of life. Healing is a slow process and requires an equally thorough process of rebuilding.

- Hierarchy of the Church do not have all the answers
 - For example pedophilia – It broke the trust of Catholics and the handling of the problem fed the anti-Catholic rhetoric. As a result, the ordained are less approachable and the reputation of the Church has been damaged.
 - If the Church does not acknowledge its failings, lack of trust grows
 - Transparency is a must
 - Allow for questions without judgment
 - The Church can ask forgiveness from its laity?
- Increase awareness of the contributions of the laity throughout the Church with respect and recognition

What dreams, desires and aspirations for the Church were expressed by participants?

- Be a beacon of Hope – Lead don't follow
 - Propose faith don't suppose it
- There is clearly disconnect between the hierarchy and laity of the Church. We would like to see them come together with a shared vision and lead by example to achieve that vision.
- Ability to share the wealth of the Church with the poor and disenfranchised.

2. What are the emerging actions recommended?

- Greater role and recognition for both women and men in the church. We must find ways to increase vocations. Some of these present practical logistical challenges (i.e. housing etc.), but nothing that is insurmountable.
 - Women deacons
 - Elevation of nuns to greater roles and recognition
 - Married clergy
 - Ordain deacons as priests
- Involvement of youth in the Church
 - Engage with other parishes and organizations to learn best practices.
 - Share programs among parishes
- Catholic Education
 - Provide continuity and support throughout education from elementary through college
 - Improve funding options
 - Be more inclusive
- Increased outreach and evangelization and getting out of our comfort zone
 - Provide training to laity of best practices. Make it consistent.
 - Improve our catechesis so we can put it into action.
 - Make a significant effort to identify the ever growing marginalized population (poor imprisoned, etc.) so we can serve them.
 - Share ministries among parishes. Work together to increase resources and improve results.
 - Hierarchy should show some contrition and ask forgiveness

What challenges or opportunities do these reflections pose for us in our personal lives, in our communities, and in our diocese?

The source of these ideas came from listening to our laity and the Holy Spirit. These changes will not come if we cannot keep the laity of our parishes involved. While the output is intended to be a base to start changes in the Universal Church, we cannot let this opportunity address only the Universal Church. The people in the sessions were energized by the opportunity to make such a significant difference and help our Church. We MUST effect changes at the parish level to truly be successful. We will need help for this continuity to occur. The diocese has a significant role in our success.

What are the consequences of not addressing these issues?

This is a simple question to answer. Re-read the list of opportunities. If we cannot prioritize and make some changes, the parishes and the Universal Church will remain static. Our issues will not be addressed and we will revert to the status quo from where the issues arose.
