PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

St. Julie Billiart is a welcoming Roman Catholic community that deepens our personal relationship with Jesus Christ by worshiping together, reaching out to others and building up the Kingdom of God.

From the desk of Fr. George...

Greetings Parishioners and friends of St. Julie's,

So... how's your Lent? I am praying that each of us has been able to enter this Holy Season with a spirit of thankfulness and joy. Remember, the Lord waits for us with open arms.

On this Second Sunday of Lent, the Gospel of The Transfiguration reveals the glory of Jesus to Peter, James, and John. Jesus had taken them up the mountain to pray... and it is there that they witness the transfiguration of Jesus... it is there that they experience Moses and Elijah... it is there that they hear the voice from the cloud which said: "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." Jesus was preparing them for the events that lay ahead in Jerusalem.

It is in prayer that the glory of God is revealed. Each of us, through prayer, can know the glory of God. It may not be the same as today's gospel account, but it is the same God. Take time throughout this Holy Season to be a person of prayer. Remember the four principles of prayer: Adoration, Contrition, Thanksgiving, and Supplication.

Fr. George

Are you in need of something to do for Lent?

A primer for confession

with an examination of conscience

By Father Frederick L. Miller, S.T.D.

A Primer for Confession

Jesus Christ came into the world to save all people from the power of Satan, sin, and sin's consequence, death. The purpose of his ministry was our reconciliation with the Father. In a special way, his death on the cross brought the possibility of forgiveness, peace and reconciliation to all.

On the evening of his resurrection from the dead, Jesus appeared to his Apostles and gave them the power to forgive all human sins. Breathing upon them, He said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive anyone's sins, they are forgiven. If you retain anyone's sins, they are retained." (Jn. 20:22-23) Through the Sacrament of Holy Orders, bishops and priests of the Church receive the ability from Christ himself to forgive sins. It is exercised in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, also known as the Sacrament of Penance or simply as "confession." Through this Sacrament, Christ forgives the sins that the members of his Church commit after Baptism.

In order to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation worthily, the penitent (the sinner) must be sorry for his or her sins. Sorrow for sins is called contrition. Imperfect contrition is sorrow for sins motivated by fear of the fires of hell or the ugliness of sin itself. Perfect contrition is sorrow for sin motivated by the love of God.

Contrition, perfect or imperfect, must include a firm purpose of amendment, that is, a solid resolution to avoid the sin committed as well as the persons, places and things that prompted you to commit the sin in the first place. Without this repentance, contrition is insincere and our confession is pointless.

Whenever you sin, you should beg God for the gift of perfect contrition. Often God gives this gift when a Christian thinks about Jesus' agony on the cross and realizes that his sins are the cause of that suffering. Throw yourself into the arms of the crucified Savior's mercy and resolve to confess your sins to a priest as soon as possible.

When you come to church to confess your sins, you should first examine your conscience. Review your life to see how you offended the good God since your last confession. The Church teaches that all mortal sins committed after Baptism must be confessed to a priest in order to be forgiven. This "precept" or law is of Divine Institution. Simply stated, this means the confession of grave sins to a priest is part of God's plan and therefore is supported and carried out in the life of the Church. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (#1455) underscores the therapeutic value of confession for all believers.

Mortal sin is a direct, conscious and free violation of one or another of the Ten Commandments in a serious matter. Mortal sin, also known as grave or deadly sin, destroys the life of grace in your soul. God's grace begins to draw the sinner back to him through sorrow for sin. He is brought back to life when he confesses his sins to a priest and receives absolution (forgiveness). The Church recommends that Catholics confess their venial sins which are violations of God's law that do not sever the relationship with him or destroy the life of grace in the soul.

The following is an examination of conscience to help you prepare for confession. If you are not sure whether your sins are "mortal" or "venial," the confessor (the priest to whom you confess your sins) will help you to understand the difference. Don't be shy: seek his assistance. Ask him questions!

Most parishes schedule confessions every week, often on Saturday. You are also free to call your parish priest and make an appointment for confession.

1. I am the Lord your God. You shall not have strange gods before me.

- Do I seek to love God with my whole heart and soul? Does He truly hold the first place in my life?
- Have I been involved with the occult or superstitious practices?
- Have I ever received Holy Communion in the state of mortal sin?
- Have I told a lie in confession or deliberately withheld confessing a mortal sin?

2. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.

- Have I insulted God's holy name or used it lightly or carelessly?
- Have I wished evil on anyone?

3. Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day.

- Have I missed Mass deliberately on Sunday, the Lord's Day, or on Holy Days of obligation?
- Do I try to keep Sunday as a day of rest?

4. Honor your father and your mother.

- Do I honor and obey my parents? Do I care for them in their old age?
- Have I neglected my family responsibilities to spouse and children?
- Is my family life centered around Christ and his teaching?

5. You shall not kill.

- Have I murdered or physically harmed anyone?
- Have I had an abortion? Have I encouraged an abortion?
- Have I abused drugs or alcohol?
- Have I mutilated myself through any form of sterilization?
- Have I encouraged others to have themselves sterilized?
- Have I harbored hatred, anger or resentment in my heart towards anyone?
- Have I given scandal to anyone by my sins, thereby leading them to sin?

6. You shall not commit adultery.

- Have I been unfaithful to my marriage vows in action or thought?
- Have I practiced any form of contraception in my marriage?
- Have I used fertility treatments condemned by the Church?
- Have I been engaged in sexual activity with a member of the opposite sex or the same sex?
- Have I masturbated?
- Have I indulged in pornographic material?

- Am I pure in my thoughts, words, actions? Am I modest in dress?
- Am I engaged in any inappropriate relationships?

7. You shall not steal.

- Have I taken what is not mine?
- Am I honest with my employer/employee?
- Do I gamble excessively, thereby robbing my family of their needs?
- Do I seek to share what I have with the poor and needy?

8. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

- Have I lied, gossiped or spoken behind anyone's back?
- Have I ruined anyone's good name?
- Do I reveal information that should be confidential?
- Am I sincere in my dealings with others or am I "two-faced?"

9. You shall not desire your neighbor's wife.

- Am I envious of another's spouse or family?
- Have I consented to impure thoughts? Do I try to control my imagination?
- Am I reckless and irresponsible in the books I read and the movies I watch?

10. You shall not desire your neighbor's goods.

- Am I envious of the possessions of others?
- Am I resentful and bitter over my position in life?

When you enter the place set aside for the celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the priest may greet you, and together you will make the sign of the cross. He may then choose a brief reading from the Bible to help you feel the merciful presence of Christ. Next, you tell your sins simply and honestly to the priest. The simpler and the more honest the better! Don't make excuses! Don't try to disguise or minimize what you have done! Most importantly, think of Christ crucified dying out of love for you. Step on your pride and admit your guilt!

Remember, God wills that you confess all mortal sins by name and number. For instance, "I committed adultery three times and helped a friend procure an abortion." "I missed Mass on Sunday." "I gambled away a whole week's pay check."

This sacrament is not only for the forgiveness of mortal sins. You may also confess your venial sins. The Church encourages devotional confession, that is, the frequent confession of venial sins as a means of growing perfect in the love of God and neighbor.

After you confess your sins, listen to the advice the priest offers you. You may also seek his help and guidance. He will then give you a penance. He will ask you to either pray, fast or perform an act of charity. Through the penance, you begin to make reparation for the harm your sins have caused you, others and the Church. The penance of the priest reminds us that we need to be one with Christ in his sufferings so as to share in his resurrection.

Finally, the priest will ask you to express, in an act of contrition, your sorrow for the sins confessed, and then, exercising the power of Christ, he will give you absolution. As he prays over you, know with the certainty of faith that God is forgiving all your sins, healing you and preparing you for the Banquet of the Kingdom of Heaven! The priest will dismiss you saying: "Give thanks to the Lord for He is good." You respond: "His mercy endures forever." Or he may say, "The Lord has freed you from your sins. Go in peace," to which you answer, "Thanks be to God."

Try to spend some time in prayer, thanking God for his forgiveness. Perform the penance the priest has given you as soon as possible after receiving absolution.

If you make good use and frequent use of this sacrament, you will have peace of heart, purity of conscience and a deep union with Christ in his love for his Father and for all men and women. The grace of the sacrament will cause you to become like Jesus, our Lord, in all you say and do! It will make you a stronger and more committed member of his Church!

Published with ecclesiastical approval.

Father Frederick L. Miller is a priest of the Archdiocese of Newark, NJ. He is presently assigned as spiritual director of the College Seminary of the Immaculate Conception at Seton Hall University, South Orange, NJ.

Act of Contrition

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.

or

Lord Jesus, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age." Matthew 28:19-20

Week 2 Update

During the first week of the Spring Campaign, 29 babies were saved from abortion (that we know of)! God is hearing and answering our prayers!

Each of us can be a part of the Campaign by committing to pray and fast for an end to abortion every day during the 40 Days for Life.

There are also numerous local opportunities for shared prayer with others.

Every Thursday through April 7th, St. Julie Billiart parishioners will be praying at the Planned Parenthood abortion facility in Bedford Heights from 12noon to 1pm. The facility is located at 25350 Rockside Rd. Parking is available across the street at Cannon Beverage. God uses our peaceful, prayerful presence -- at the very place where children are being killed -- to change hearts and save lives! To caravan, meet at the St. Julie large parking lot at 11:15am. For directions, call Susan and John DeLaat at 440-327-2398

Also on Thursdays from 12noon to 1pm, a Holy Hour for Life will be held at St. Julie Billiart in the church. Join with fellow parishioners in the presence of Jesus in the tabernacle to pray for an end to abortion in conjunction with the ongoing Prayer Vigil at the abortion facility.

Another great opportunity for prayer is each Wednesday, the St. Julie Billiart Rosary Group will pray the Rosary at the church at 1:00pm.

At St. Peter Parish, on Mondays from 12Noon to 1pm, all are invited to join St. Peter parishioners to gather in the church for a Prayer Hour for Life. Everyone is welcome.

Also on Mondays, everyone is invited to join St. Peter parishioners in traveling to the Preterm abortion facility for prayer from Noon to 1pm at 12000 Shaker Blvd. in Cleveland. Meet at the St. Peter parking lot at 11:15am.

God has worked many amazing miracles during each 40 Days for Life Campaign! Please pray every day for more miracles, and for an end to all abortion.

If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land. 2 Chronicles 7:14
