PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Parishioners,

It's cold. And I am grateful. It is not that I like cold weather. I am grateful that I am alive in the 21st century. I am blessed to live in a prosperous country. And barring an unforeseen catastrophe, I have warm clothes, warm places to work and live and a warm car (after it warms up!) I hope that you can be grateful too. And let us pray for and labor on behalf of those whose lives are severely impacted by the cold. Let us support those who help people affected by the cold. Although warming the chilled is not categorized as a corporal work of mercy, I believe it falls under clothing the naked. On these cold days, let us be grateful for the ways we can keep warm and help those who are less fortunate.

Today, throughout the United States, we begin Catholic Schools Week. During this week Catholic schools celebrate their achievements and promote their schools. If you are parents of elementary school age children and have questions about a Catholic elementary education, I invite you to call Amy Reitz at St. Peter School at 440-327-3212.

St. Peter is hosting a Pre-Baptism class this Wednesday, January 28 at 7:00 PM in the Galilee Room of the Parish Center. Next month this class will be at St. Julie Parish on Wednesday, February 25 at 7:00 PM in the Holy Family Room. I am encouraged by the number of young couples starting families and seeking to have their children baptized. May God's blessings be on families!

Last week one of our parishioners came up to me after Mass and ask me if we had any Catholic bible studies currently taking place in the parish. Between St. Peter Parish and St. Julie Parish, there are several small groups studying the bible in their homes and other settings. However, we do not currently have an ongoing bible study in either parish. I referred this person to the Fr. Michael Schmitz Bible in a Year podcast. It is a great way to acquaint oneself with the whole bible.

The fact that we Catholics are looking for bible studies tells me that we are trending in the right direction. Throughout the 20th century and especially since Vatican II, there has been a growing emphasis on bible reading for Catholics. We need to read the bible to feed our souls and deepen our relationship with Christ.

On September 30, 2019 (feast of St. Jerome, Doctor of the Church and Fourth Century scripture scholar who said "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ"), Pope Francis declared that the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time be declared Word of God Sunday. Pope Francis stated that this Sunday is "to be devoted to the celebration, study and dissemination of the Word of God." (Aperuit Illis #3)

Today we celebrate Word of God Sunday. The title of Pope Francis' document Aperuit Illis comes from Luke 24:45, which states "He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures". Let us pray that Jesus opens our minds to better understand and live His words.

In Christ,

Fr. Bob Franco

THANK YOU SAINT JULIE BILLIART PARISH

St. Julies Parish,

Thank you so much for the incredible Christmas donations. We are once again so overwhelmed by your parish's generosity for Birthright. Our all-volunteer organization will be able to help so many families because of your support. In 2025 we served over 650 families. We gave out over 80,000 diapers and 1800 cans of formula and baby food among so many other things.

St Julie's Christmas donations in addition to cash were 1182 diapers, 30 packages of wipes, 37 sleepers, 37 onesies, 31 blankets, 16 baby soap, 13 bottles, 26 pairs of socks and gloves, 14 outfits, toys, sleep sacs and so much more! We also received the many donations you purchased through our Amazon wishlist. A heart felt thank you to all of you! We could not help these moms and their children without you. You are truly a beacon of hope for us. May God bless each of you in this new year. With gratitude and love, Lisa Nelson and Molly Moracz Co-Directors, Birthright

ST. PETER CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Faith First:

St. Peter School students and teachers had the opportunity to gather with many of our area Catholic Schools for all Lorain County Mass at Elyria Catholic High School. Our students boarded the buses, brought food for the needy and participated in the Mass as readers and servers. Thank you to Elyria Catholic for hosting so many of our students and giving us the chance to gather as one huge group and celebrate our Faith.

Happy Catholic Schools Week! This Sunday Kicks off Catholic Schools Week with an Open House for new families from 10:00am - 12:00pm. The rest of the week is filled with Mass, learning about our Faith, celebrations, fun activities and fellowship with each other. Thank you to everyone who has made this week possible.

Academics

After having Monday off for Martin Luther King Day, and a Cold Day on Tuesday the students were back to school on Wednesday to get to the business of learning. Even though it was a shortened week the staff and students worked hard in class. Junior High Students are busy getting ready for the Science Fair. Getting their tri-fold boards together, writing their research papers and practicing their speeches. This should be a great fair with many wonderful presentations. Thank you to all who have helped put together this awesome learning experience for our students.

Everything Else:

St. Peter Drama Club has been working hard on this year's musical, Mary Poppins, Jr. The drama club has many different departments within. The cast who everyone gets to see on stage. Set design who builds all the sets and scenery, stage crew who moves all the sets throughout the play, makeup and costume who turn our students into their characters, lighting and sound as well as a host of others who help put on this production. Thank you to all who have been working hard to make this possible for our students.

Mary Poppins Jr. March 27th and March 28th, 7:00pm, St. Peter Gym, Tickets available by calling the school. (440-327-3212)
