From the desk of Fr. George...

Greetings Parishioners and friends of St. Julie's,

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity. For many years, today's feast of The Most Holy Trinity has held special sentiment and meaning for me as a priest. My home parish was Holy Trinity in Lorain, Ohio. As a child I spent innumerable hours staring at the ceiling above the sanctuary which is very large fresco depicting The Trinity and The Communion of Saints. Side frescos also depict the marriage of Mary and Joseph as well as The Resurrection of Christ. The frescos were completed in 1948 - over twenty years after the church had been built. The Great Depression and World War II had delayed the project, but finally the Slovak people were able to complete their place of worship in a fashion befitting their reverence for God. After 106 years, Holy Trinity - Lorain was closed in December of 2009 as part of the restructuring of parishes in the Diocese. While the property has since sold and another denomination has moved into the worship space, the great frescos remain watching over another style of worship and praise. While the remaining Holy Trinity parishioners have moved onto other churches in the city, The Blessed Trinity will always be part of our faith.

The doctrine of The Trinity is central to the Christian faith. The first Christians experienced Jesus through his life, death and resurrection. In those events, they witnessed the one God who exists in a relationship of three persons. While many claim that The Trinity is a mystery - and therefore we can never fully comprehend the doctrine, we are called to continually search for meaning... and when necessary, to gaze upon the experience of others as my home parish did for 61 years.

Our catechism offers us two definitions which may help in understanding.

- The Immanent Trinity: refers to the inner life of the Trinity, the relations of the three divine persons, one to another.
- The Salvific Trinity: refers to the active work of the triune God in salvation history; the Father as Creator, the Son as redeemer, the Holy Spirit as Sanctifier.

The Feast of the Most Holy Trinity - the naming of God - is present to us as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. While trying to describe this great mystery in fifty words or less would be near to impossible, I think we can all reverence God as Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier. God has touched all creation and every creature - most especially us as having been created in His image and likeness... having been given a soul that separates us from every living being - so that we might know His love and love one and other.

Where and how do you find or see The Trinity in your life?

Fr. George

"He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you." - Jn 16:14-15

Walking With Moms In Need

Moms-in-need are in our parishes and our neighborhoods. Our parish is participating in a nationwide effort to increase outreach and support for pregnant and parenting mothers entitled, "Walking with Moms in Need." In the coming weeks, we will be making available an inventory of local Pregnancy Help and Family Assistance resources for women raising children so that everyone in the parish community can know where to refer a pregnant or parenting mom in need. We hope to move closer to the day when every mother in need knows where to turn for help. As Pope Francis reminds us, our parishes need to be "Islands of mercy in the midst of the sea of indifference."

Men's Breakfast

Please join us for the St. Julie & St. Peter Men's Fellowship breakfast on Saturday, June 18th @ 8:20 am. Breakfast will be served at St. Julie's.

Annual Global Rosary Relay

In 2002, Pope St. John Paul II declared the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus as an annual occasion for the Universal Church to pray for the Sanctification of Priests. The Annual Global Rosary Relay for the Sanctification of Priests will again take place on June 24, the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Each of the participating prayer location countries prays a particular mystery of the Rosary at a specific allocated time on the day in thanksgiving to God for our priests and to implore the protection and loving care of Our Lady, Mother of all priests, for all her priestly sons. With the coming of midnight on June 24, the entire world will by then have been encircled yet again in prayer on this The Worldpriest Annual Rosary Relay Day. See worldpriest.com

Thoughtful Moments

A good friend

Friendship skills aren't natural to everyone. One has to be a good friend to attract good friends. By being a good friend, we can share God's love with others. Some examples include: inviting a friend to play, smiling and waving "hello," listening when the friend talks, saving a seat at the lunch table.

Thou shall not kill

The Fifth Commandment teaches us to respect life. One way to live the Commandment is to avoid watching television shows or movies about murder and to refuse to allow children to play violent video games.

Pick a prayer

Learning new prayers can help enliven a family prayer life. Choose a time of day when the whole family is together and pick a prayer you may not know or don't say often and practice it for a week. For ideas, consult Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers from the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (www.usccb.org).

Summer time means family time

Summer's slower pace can bring more time together as a family. Plan ahead to make memories this summer and put more faith practices into your family fun, too. Here are some ideas:

Play outside. One of the ways we learn about God is through His creation. Spend time outside this summer giving children a chance to explore the natural environment.

Create a sacred space. Set aside a space at home dedicated to family prayer. For example, decorate a corner in the living room with your favorite icons and candles. Add a statue of Christ and your favorite saint and come together for a Rosary.

Rosaries for Troops. Men and women in harm's way appreciate handmade Rosaries that meet criteria for those serving in hostile areas. Make this a family project. This website can show you how:

<http://www.seatofwisdom.net/rosary.htm>.

Joyful Noise Night.

Children of Christ have much to celebrate.

Designate one night a week as Joyful Noise Night and ask each person to bring to the table one joke, cartoon, comic or funny story. Outlaw glum faces for the entire evening.

Every Sunday Holiday.

Make every summer Sunday a family holiday. Attend Mass together and then take a hike at a local park, go out for lunch, visit with friends or relatives. (Note: to locate a Mass while on vacation, go to: www.parishesonline.com.)

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Relics are the remains or personal possessions of a saint – ordinary people, like us, transformed by God's grace. When we venerate their relics, we honor the saints as models of holiness and can ask them to pray for us. Occasionally, miracles happen as a result, but it is by God's power. The relics of themselves have no special properties. If one's faith in God is renewed or someone experiences a conversion of heart, then those are miracles in themselves.

Why do Catholics venerate relics?

The ultimate earthly father

Scripture doesn't report that St. Joseph was born with special graces, yet he was chosen to raise God's Son. He may not have had the gift of prophecy, yet he never doubted God's word. He was an ordinary man who lived an extraordinary life.

Ever faithful. As a faithful Jew with knowledge of Scripture, Joseph knew that God sometimes sent instructions through angels. That's why he was open to being guided by an angel in a dream. So Joseph's devotion to God's Word helped him follow God's will.

Steady provider. Joseph left everything to flee with his family to Egypt (Matthew 2:13-15). He kept them safe until the angel said to move back (Matthew 2:20-23). Joseph's hard work and skill helped provide for his family in a foreign land.

Good man. Scripture said that St. Joseph lived a virtuous life (Matthew 1:19). We also know he was compassionate in his treatment of Mary. Who better to raise the Son of God and care for His Mother than the ultimate earthly father?

Scripture LESSON

Luke 9:51-62, What does it take to be a disciple?

In this Gospel reading, the first man enthusiastically offered to follow Jesus but he wasn't prepared for the cost. Jesus was unflinching in pointing out that He has no home, no shelter, no family – none of the things people normally consider important for a happy life.

It may not always be comfortable to follow Jesus. Burying one's parent was considered a binding religious duty among the Jews, so the second man wanted to fulfill that duty before setting out with Jesus. Jesus' answer pointed out the importance of action when He says it is time to move. In the third story, Jesus points out that looking back while plowing can ruin the row. He wanted the third man to understand that we need to have a singleness of purpose to be His disciple.

What can a parent do? Remind your children that it isn't always easy to be a follower of Jesus. There are things we have to give up and comforts we may have to sacrifice. But He promises us that the rewards will be unimaginable and worth more than the costs.

Parent TALK

My old discipline tools aren't working so well anymore. My girls aren't bad but when they make bad choices, "go to your room" isn't enough.

So I set up a card table in the family room, invested in a few Catholic reference books, such as

Butler's Lives of the Saints and some drawing and writing materials. When the girls need "redirecting," I now assign short reports, projects, or essays depending upon the misdeed.

When Tessa "forgot" to give me back the change from her lunch money, I assigned a three-paragraph report on St. Nicholas who gave away his money to the poor. When Kara took a test without studying for it, I had her illustrate a comic book about St. Catherine of Alexandria who is said to have converted 50 pagan philosophers using her wisdom and knowledge.

Partnering with saints to raise my children makes more sense than giving time-outs.

Feasts & Celebrations

June 5 – The Feast of Pentecost. Today, we celebrate the birthday of the Church, when the Holy Spirit was given to the Apostles, following the Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus.

June 8 – St. William of York (1154). St. William was born into a noble English family. Even when political opponents slandered him, St. William was never bitter or resentful. He died less than two months after his consecration, probably poisoned.

June 15 – St. Germain Cousin (1601). Born in France, St. Germain lost her mother at infancy and was mistreated by her stepmother. She became a shepherdess, known for her simple, yet profound faith. She attended Mass daily, leaving her flock in God's care.

June 29 – Sts. Peter and Paul (1st century). Peter, an ordinary fisherman made extraordinary by God's grace, was chosen by Jesus to lead the Church. An early persecutor of the Church, Saul became the Great Apostle Paul, also transformed by grace.
